Semi-finished stone house in a mountainous village, close to all local amenities

Located in a quiet and picturesque neighborhood of the village Lazarata and in walking distance from the square with its local ''kafeneio''. tavernas and market.

The house is ideal for those looking for an authentic village life and simple living. The renovation of the property started in 2008 and awaits your finishing touch. Traditional elements such as exposed wooden beams, wooden shutters, and rustic tiles give warmth and charm to this house.

An arched doorway opens onto the main living space which also features the kitchen, a bedroom and a bathroom. The first floor is planned for 3 bedrooms with a shared bathroom and a lounge which opens onto a balcony with a view and stairs with direct access to the terrace.
