An endearing 3-bedroom home in the heart of old Lefkada town

Located in one of the many colorful alleys of city, where one can wander off on foot to the many shops, markets, and restaurants. An optimal position for one who wishes to be at the heart of it all.

Built in the 1980s and refurbished in 2022, this home spreads over 3 levels. The main entrance opens onto the main living area consisting of an open-plan kitchen dining and sitting room fitted with a wood burner. On the first floor, the two bedrooms share the bathroom, where the toilet is separate from the shower room. The second floor features an attic which has been converted to an en-suite bedroom, that opens onto a spacious terrace overlooking the terracotta tiled rooftops and the sea in the distance.
